

LWA Free Postcard

Print out file on cardstock, though regular paper is fine too. Score across dotted lines with an art blade or butter knife. Cut out card along solid line and fold on score. Glue or tape both sides together to make a front and back and a nice stiff postcard. Mail out to fellow letter lovers or to those who owe you money.

LETTERS WRITERS ALLIANCE

In this era of instantaneous communication, a hand-written letter is a rare and wondrous item. The Letter Writers Alliance is dedicated to preserving this art form: neither long lines, nor late deliveries, nor increasing postal rates will keep us from our mission. As a member of the Letter Writers Alliance, you will carry on the glorious cultural tradition of letter writing. You will take advantage of every opportunity to send tangible correspondence. Prepare your pen and paper, moisten your tongue, and get ready to write more letters!
